State of Florida Department of Education Division of Early Learning Tallahassee, Florida

We have performed specific financial compliance consulting services as approved by the Florida Department of Education Division of Early Learning (DEL) for the Early Learning Coalition of Escambia County, Inc. (ELC 01 or the ELC). These services were contracted by DEL to comply with its oversight and monitoring responsibilities as outlined in the following applicable federal regulations and program guidance:

- 45 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 75.342(a), USDHHS, Monitoring and reporting program performance,
- 2 CFR § 200.329(a), Monitoring and reporting program performance,
- 2 CFR § 200.332(d), Requirements for pass-through entities,
- Chapter 1002.82(2)(s), Florida Statutes (F.S.), Dept. of Education; powers and duties.

These consulting services were conducted in accordance with the Statement on Standards for Consulting Services (SSCS) established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. DEL is solely responsible for the sufficiency of the procedures performed. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures performed, either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

We performed financial compliance consulting services over the ELC as summarized in the approved financial monitoring tool. Detailed descriptions of the procedures performed, and our related findings begin on page 3 of this report.

These consulting services were not designed to express an opinion on the business, operational, and internal control risks associated with the ELC's compliance with the previously described financial management standards as outlined in applicable Office of Management and Budget Uniform Grant Guidance, Code of Federal Regulations, or other state and federal requirements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Additionally, because of inherent limitations of internal control systems, the procedures performed should not be relied upon to prevent or detect errors or fraud associated with grant related revenues or expenditures. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to DEL.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of DEL and DEL's management and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Financial Monitoring Results

Observations

Observation #01 - Improper GL Recording & Category: 1.0 Expenditure Testing

Issue/Background. During testing expenditures, we noted one of the five programmatic expense samples selected was incorrectly recorded in the general ledger. The purchase of the MarcoPolo Learning software subscription was improperly recorded to GL account 4620, Equipment (Over $5k) (>$1k), when it should have been coded to account 4550, Subscriptions. It was noted that the 3-year subscription was fully expensed at the time of payment rather than being capitalized and amortized over the life of the expense for financial statement reporting purposes.

Impact on ELC operations and compliance risks/issues identified. We noted that the ELC's actions did not fulfill expectations set by the Florida Department of Education Division of Early Learning Guidance. The issue is limited to incorrect recording for internal financial statement reporting purposes.

Recommendation:

- 1. Review ELC's existing internal controls, policies and procedures related to the ELC's journal entry process and expenses that cover a period longer than 12 months.
- 2. Update the ELC's policies, procedures and internal controls as appropriate.
- 3. Conduct training to help ensure ELC staff know about and can follow established or revised internal controls, policies and procedures.

Observation #02 - Incomplete Effectiveness Narrative Category: 2.0 Provider Monitoring

Issue/Background. During this year's fiscal monitoring activities, we noted the ELC did not complete an Effectiveness Narrative. The Effectiveness Narrative was required to be submitted to DEL by October 1, 2024, per the Florida Department of Education Division of Early Learning Program Guidance 240.21, Appendix D.

Impact on ELC operations and compliance risks/issues identified. For this issue, we noted no instances of impaired operations for the ELC. We noted unfulfilled expectations with the requirements set by the Florida Department of Education Division of Early Learning Program Guidance 240.21, Appendix D.

Recommendation: Should supplemental funds of this nature become available in the future, subrecipients are expected to comply with all deliverable requirements. DEL will send a reminder email to all subrecipients prior to the deliverable deadline.

FW: Employment Appeal

Dear EXCOM,

On August 26, 2025, I terminated for cause the employment of Ms. Topeka Robinson. The Chair was notified. About a week later Ms. Robinson requested to speak with the Board. The Chair and I discussed how to proceed and mutually agreed that even though Ms. Robinson is now a former employee we would follow the Appeal Procedure as outlined in Personnel Policy and Procedure Manual, aka Employee Handbook, for an employee to appeal an action of the Coalition. The procedure is for them to submit a letter detailing what they want to appeal, and the matter is taken to the EXCOM for review and if warranted to make a decision. There is nothing in the Handbook that commits the Board, or one of its committees, to meeting with an employee, although that is an option should the EXCOM decide to do this.

Ms. Robinson chose not to write a letter but instead submitted an email. I decided to not reject her email on this technicality and to accept it in lieu of a letter. This of course means she did not "sign" the document.

Because she was unable to formulate her thoughts and articulate what exactly transpired between us on August 26 that resulted in her termination she requested I send her an email recapping our conversation and pointing out the reasons she was terminated. I did as she requested and she in turn responded to the points that I made. I am using this email to respond directly to Ms. Robinson's comments below. Additionally, you will also see that by my request Dawn has also provided comments as well. My comments will in Blue and hers are in Red in the body of Ms. Robinson's email.

I also sent Ms. Robinson an email on September 17 pointing out that in her email she stated she had documents to prove some of her points. I informed her that if she wanted the EXCOM to take these documents into consideration she should send it to us by noon Monday September 22. I also advised her that if she had any other points to make it would be advisable that she do so at this time. She failed to respond.

STOP!!!

At this point I suggest you go the end of the email trail and work from oldest to newest as what is written will make more sense if you first read what came before it first. Ms. Robinson did not write her own comprehensive email that could stand alone. She relies heavily on the email I sent her for reference.

Respectfully, Bruce

Subject: RE: Employment Appeal

I wrote some comments down in her email in red, however, I think we could get statements of her insubordination towards Nina from Paula, PIU, maybe Finance if they overheard anything. (Also from) Patti, Skyey, Melissa Jennings, and Rhonda.

Plus, Paula was her previous supervisor and knows her behavior firsthand and we have that Counseling that Topeka refused to sign.

I have major concerns on how Topeka knows so much about certain actions at the Coalition behind the scenes. For example, how did she know her account was being monitored if "Leadership" had not informed her. Why did her daughters Facebook account go inactive after a meeting with the Eligibility Department informing them of events that have occurred and the two fraud cases? Who after that meeting went and told her? The Coalition has 2 fraud cases for her daughters and within those cases Public Assistance Fraud is looking to charge her separately. Staff at the Coalition should not be having conversations with Topeka, this is a MAJOR CONFLICT OF INTEREST!!!

Subject: Formal Appeal of Employment Termination

Dear Bruce,

This letter serves as my formal request to appeal the decision regarding my termination of employment. I am requesting the opportunity to present all relevant evidence and clarify the events and allegations listed in your termination email.

1. Visit to Your Office on August 26, 2025

On August 26, 2025, I came to your office after first speaking with Nina. When I called her, I said, "I know you don't think I turned in a fake VOE." She responded that she couldn't discuss the case. I clarified that I wasn't asking her to discuss the case but stated that something seemed off. She then told me she didn't know what was going on and that I needed to speak to you. At that point, I requested PTO so I could speak to you directly, which led me to your office. Why are we requesting PTO when meeting with the ED? If she was coming to speak with you at the Coalition, this would be considered a work meeting. Was her intention to discuss something not related to employment?

When I entered, I greeted you and asked what was going on. Your first words were, "You know you shouldn't have involved yourself in your daughter's case." This initiated the conversation, not me. (Bruce: This is facetious. Also, I do not remember starting the conversation with this line. It is also irrelevant. This was THE REASON she came to my office.) I responded that I had never worked on her case as an Eligibility Specialist (ES). You said that was not true, and then began alleging that I had been directing parents to contact DCF for childcare referrals to bypass the waitlist. (Bruce: Notice she does not dwell on the most important subject and that is her involvement in two daughters cases. Yes, she was not the ES of record, but it her email accounts that they both use for their cases. One of which is the same account Ms. Robinson uses to communicate with her supervisor.)

I firmly stated this was not true. You asked, "Not even FFN?" and I replied, "No." You insisted that a coworker had told you I do this. I clarified that I refer parents to the Homeless Coalition, DCF for TANF for a Welfare Transition Referal, which is appropriate and requires conversations to assess need—exactly as our role entails. I have documentation to support that I followed all required policies and procedures unless directed otherwise by leadership. (Several coworkers have stated she goes way above and beyond in these, and at times outright tells clients this is how you can avoid the wait list. They also think she picks and choses who she gives such "advice" to.)

On May 4, 2023, I even came to you with concerns about the homeless referral process. You told me, "We don't question referrals," and suggested telling a client to sleep in her car for a night to obtain a referral. I also have documentation disproving any claims that I told parents to contact DCF and make false claims to receive services. (Dawn: How are you talking to these clients? Are they already in care?) (Bruce: I too cannot fathom what kind of documentation she could have. If what she was doing was above reproach, there is nothing to document.)

2. Board Case and Alleged Comments

You also mentioned in your email that I had commented that "the board stole $12,000 because they put Courtney back in care." (Dawn: Where did this amount come from?) (Bruce: I have no idea where this came from. I was told after she sent this email that the amount was around $1,300. What she did say is documented in a counseling I never had a chance to deliver. A copy is provided.) I did not make this statement. I asked you about the case, and we discussed it and that was the ned of it. I said she won. Prior to that, Nina had already been discussing the case downstairs with us. I was not aware of any specific dollar amount associated with the case to even beginning to make such a statement. (In short what she did do was after the EXCOM conducted a client Appeal Hearing she walked up and down the halls ranting that the Board had allowed the client to steal from the State. She did not care if there were visitors present, she was determined to let her opinion be known.)

You refused to provide names of the individuals making these claims, which leaves me unable to adequately respond to or defend against these accusations. (Bruce: See comments on Hostile Work Environment below.)

3. Insubordination and Disrespect Allegations

You also cited repeated insubordination and disrespect toward supervisors and the organization. I am unaware of any such instances and was never approached by my supervisor or coworkers with concerns. In fact, during our conversations, you stated that my supervisor had nothing negative to say about me and that you would follow up with her. You also claimed my coworkers were afraid of me, yet you permitted me to return unsupervised to retrieve my belongings following my termination around these same coworkers. (Dawn: We currently have statements from Hope and Amy regarding her behavior.) (Bruce: She thinks she was unsupervised. I had notified people to watch her. I did not want to embarrass her leave with her dignity intact. I was also curious to see how she would act with no one dogging her on the way out.)

There have been multiple instances where I came to you to report feeling harassed or scrutinized, and my concerns were dismissed. In October 2023, I acknowledged a concern brought up by my supervisor, and I apologized—even though the information may have been misrepresented. Again in October 2024, someone reported a comment I allegedly made during a meeting that was framed as an open forum. I was not the only person who spoke, yet I was singled out. (Dawn: What instances? This cannot be addressed if we do not know what these instances are.) (Bruce: As result of her repeatedly making snide comments from the peanut gallery at staff meetings we went several months where everyone had to sit in assigned seats alphabetically. She also failed to realize just because a conversation was "open" does not mean you can belittle and argue with your supervisor. The instance she was singled out was because she was the only one who said something unacceptable. Regarding scrutiny, yes she was being watched, but it was by my direction. Her termination was the final result.)

On April 4, 2024, a member of the operations team said my email was "rude." I addressed this with you in person. You told me it was fine, and that I was within my rights to express concerns—and that you would inform me if my tone ever crossed the line. (Dawn: Found possible "rude" email in which she was questioning the Operations Director after we were questioning the legitimacy of paystubs that are screenshot and that Eligibility accepts with no employer name on them.) (Bruce: We are not sure where "rude" came from. It not uncommon for her to be questioned about some of decisions and practices. For instance, she had to be repeatedly reminded to make Case Notes. Which for someone with over a decade of experience should not have been required.)

On April 21, 2025, I came to you to report that Melissa Stankard was targeting me and monitoring my social media. Instead of addressing the issue, you called me a "known troublemaker." I asked how and why you saw me that way, and you provided no clear reason—only that you would "look into it." (Dawn: First off, we were not looking at her in April. We did not start looking at her daughters until the end of July. Melissa Stankard cannot see said Facebook as Topeka is BLOCKED and has been blocked for years. Is there proof of this accusation in writing? Dawn Engel was tasked a few years ago with monitoring Facebook accounts due to the Eligibility Dept staff promoting businesses during working hours and making multiple posts throughout the day. When Topeka was notified of this, Dawn Engel was then BLOCKED.) (Bruce: I was the one directing certain staff to monitor accounts of staff suspected of working second jobs while on the clock with the Coalition. Several staff have had their telework privilege revoked on the suspicion they were not giving the Coalition a full nine hours a day when working from home. I also monitor where staff go on the internet. In general terms all staff are aware that we do this, but I make it a habit to not confirm specifics when an investigation is in process.)

There is a consistent pattern here: I have raised legitimate concerns and expressed myself respectfully, only to be dismissed or mischaracterized. I have numerous messages and documentation that reflect my professionalism and commitment to following policy. (Dawn: If you have raised concerns and have been dismissed, why has it not risen to the level of the Executive Director until now. If it was dismissed by the Executive Director, why was it not brought to the Board for review as stated in our Employee Handbook? Were emails or documents submitted in writing showing the dismissal of these concerns?)

4. Hostile Work Environment

Ironically, while I am accused of creating a hostile environment, I have experienced one. For instance, on September 25, 2024, during an all-staff meeting, you told us to "shut the fuck up" regarding board members. Yet, this behavior appears acceptable when coming from leadership, while my respectful communication is labeled as insubordination. (Dawn: Again, several employees have overheard her speak to the leadership in a disrespectful tone. They have heard her argue with leadership. Passionate cannot be an excuse for being loud and insubordinate.) (Bruce: Yes, I said this. It was on the heals of staff gossip resulting in the resignation of Van. It was the only time in 13 years I have done something like this. I don't think once in over a decade creates a hostile work environment. I even apologized when I did the annual review of the Employee Handbook a month later.) (Bruce: Her communications are not respectful and are insubordinate. She says she is passionate at times. I say she is in your face loud and rude because that is how she has learned to get her way.)

5. Final Comments and Request for Reinstatement

Yes, I did ask if I was being fired—because at that moment, you had indirectly called me a liar, thief, and bully. I also said that I didn't want to work for someone who didn't want me. The only thing I am guilty of is being passionate about my job and advocating fairly and equally for every client. (Dawn: This conversation would be a "he said, she said", however, through the wall opening, since she is "passionate" about her job, these words were never heard by others.) (Bruce: What Dawn is referring to is very calm and quiet way I dealt with our meeting. She can hear through a gap in our shared wall most everything that is said in my office when people raise their voices. Our conversation progressed to the point where I had laid out all her shortcomings and she concluded that this meant she was being fired. I agreed with her and told her that day was her last day, and she should gather her things and leave the building. She did say in parting she did not want to work for a company that did not want her.)

I currently have over 92 pages of documented communication that contradict the reasons cited for my termination. I request that my employment be reinstated and that I be given the opportunity to present this evidence to the board. (Dawn: Please submit this documentation for review as required for every person that requests an appeal.) (Bruce: I suggested in an email that she provide this documentation.)

I look forward to hearing from you regarding a meeting to discuss this matter further. (Bruce: She wants to meet face to face. I suspect one reason is so she can exert her personality into getting what she wants. There is no provision for such a meeting, but it can be granted if the EXCOM decides it wants to do it.)

Respectfully,
Topeka Robinson

Topeka,

You have sent several emails this past weekend. I will deal with each of them here. However, it is with some reservation that I am replying to this email account as it is the same email address that was given to us as the email of record of a client. Therefore, I am not altogether sure who all have access to these emails or who is reading them.

If you decide to submit an appeal when you do it is up to you. I suggest you take your time and ensure what you submit best represents your concerns. A copy of the Employee Handbook is provided as requested.

As far as what to talk about I suggest you begin by discussing what brought you to my office on Tuesday August 26, 2025, in the first place. I did not request to meet with you, quite the opposite, you came to see me. The reason why was because you wanted answers about why we had terminated care for a client whose case you were required to remain uninvolved in because the client is one of your daughters. You did not come to see me as an ES with concern for a case, but as a parent/grandparent, and you knew in that capacity you were not supposed to be involved in the case and that by policy I was not supposed to talk to you as you are not the client. In part, your involvement in the cases of both of your daughters has come under scrutiny and is being investigated. (Bruce: Please keep this paragraph in mind when you read her reply.)

It has been alleged that you did not follow procedures, or at best overstepped your authority, by telling parents they can avoid the Wait List by getting a homeless or domestic violence referral. You said that you only do this when the circumstances warrant it. I conceded that sometimes that these referrals are appropriate, but your coworkers have said that often you suggest this even when there is no real cause, and that when you do it is not for all clients, but only those who you decide are deserving and shouldn't have to wait. As a result of your alleged actions, we are being directed by the state to conduct an audit of our BG1-At Risk referrals to see how many you might have been involved in.

We discussed your repeated insubordination and demonstrations of disrespect, particularly for your supervisor, and at times for this company. I stated that your coworkers are afraid of you, and they are reluctant to officially say anything negative about you because they are in fear of how you may react. They are very distraught over how poorly you treat your supervisor. I pointed out that we can no longer tolerate this type of behavior nor can we allow your continually create a hostile work environment.

You stated that "I guess that means I am fired?" I said that things have come to the point that for the good of this company I have no other choice. At which time you said, "I am not staying anywhere that I am not wanted." I said today was your last day, and that you would be paid for the whole day. Shortly after that our meeting ended.

Subject: Formal Appeal of Employment Termination

Dear Bruce,

This letter serves as my formal request to appeal the decision regarding my termination of employment. I am requesting the opportunity to present all relevant evidence and clarify the events and allegations listed in your termination email.

1. Visit to Your Office on August 26, 2025

On August 26, 2025, I came to your office after first speaking with Nina. When I called her, I said, "I know you don't think I turned in a fake VOE." She responded that she couldn't discuss the case. I clarified that I wasn't asking her to discuss the case but stated that something seemed off. She then told me she didn't know what was going on and that I needed to speak to you. At that point, I requested PTO so I could speak to you directly, which led me to your office.

When I entered, I greeted you and asked what was going on. Your first words were, "You know you shouldn't have involved yourself in your daughter's case." This initiated the conversation, not me. I responded that I had never worked on her case as an Eligibility Specialist (ES). You said that was not true, and then began alleging that I had been directing parents to contact DCF for childcare referrals to bypass the waitlist.

I firmly stated this was not true. You asked, "Not even FFN?" and I replied, "No." You insisted that a coworker had told you I do this. I clarified that I refer parents to the Homeless Coalition, DCF for TANF for a Welfare Transition Referal, which is appropriate and requires conversations to assess need—exactly as our role entails. I have documentation to support that I followed all required policies and procedures unless directed otherwise by leadership.

On May 4, 2023, I even came to you with concerns about the homeless referral process. You told me, "We don't question referrals," and suggested telling a client to sleep in her car for a night to obtain a referral. I also have documentation disproving any claims that I told parents to contact DCF and make false claims to receive services.

2. Board Case and Alleged Comments

You also mentioned in your email that I had commented that "the board stole $12,000 because they put Courtney back in care." I did not make this statement. I asked you about the case, and we discussed it and that was the ned of it. I said she won. Prior to that, Nina had already been discussing the case downstairs with us. I was not aware of any specific dollar amount associated with the case to even beginning to make such a statement.

You refused to provide names of the individuals making these claims, which leaves me unable to adequately respond to or defend against these accusations.

3. Insubordination and Disrespect Allegations

You also cited repeated insubordination and disrespect toward supervisors and the organization. I am unaware of any such instances and was never approached by my supervisor or coworkers with concerns. In fact, during our conversations, you stated that my supervisor had nothing negative to say about me and that you would follow up with her. You also claimed my coworkers were afraid of me, yet you permitted me to return unsupervised to retrieve my belongings following my termination around these same coworkers.

There have been multiple instances where I came to you to report feeling harassed or scrutinized, and my concerns were dismissed. In October 2023, I acknowledged a concern brought up by my supervisor, and I apologized—even though the information may have been misrepresented. Again in October 2024, someone reported a comment I allegedly made during a meeting that was framed as an open forum. I was not the only person who spoke, yet I was singled out.

On April 4, 2024, a member of the operations team said my email was "rude." I addressed this with you in person. You told me it was fine, and that I was within my rights to express concerns—and that you would inform me if my tone ever crossed the line.

On April 21, 2025, I came to you to report that Melissa Stankard was targeting me and monitoring my social media. Instead of addressing the issue, you called me a "known troublemaker." I asked how and why you saw me that way, and you provided no clear reason—only that you would "look into it."

There is a consistent pattern here: I have raised legitimate concerns and expressed myself respectfully, only to be dismissed or mischaracterized. I have numerous messages and documentation that reflect my professionalism and commitment to following policy.

4. Hostile Work Environment

Ironically, while I am accused of creating a hostile environment, I have experienced one. For instance, on September 25, 2024, during an all-staff meeting, you told us to "shut the fuck up" regarding board members. Yet, this behavior appears acceptable when coming from leadership, while my respectful communication is labeled as insubordination.

Landrum Professional Employer Services, Inc. 6723 Plantation Road Pensacola, FL 32514 (850) 476-5100

Fax: (850) 465-0649

Employee Name:

Topeka Robinson

Date: 6/16/17

Landrum Professional Client Name: Early Learning Coalition of Escambia County

Supervisor Name: Melissa Stankard

Director Name: Paula Rollins

Reason for Counseling:

Insubordination: Failure or refusal to submit to the authority of you supervisor and rebellious at times with open defiance. Unacceptable behavior in staff meetings as well at meetings with your direct supervisor.

An Eligibility Specialist staff meeting was held on June 9, 2017 in regards to the number and types of errors for case files. Once the meeting was opened up to discussion as to why the types of errors continue, you openly stated to your department director and everyone present that "Maybe we are just in a hurry to get back to doing nothing". This comment was both disrespectful and insubordinate, and makes it appear that you really do not want to work here anymore.

Disrespectful: Displays actions of lack of respect, rude at times and discourteous. Fails to acknowledge the leadership and guidance of your supervisor. Other staff in the department have commented on your behavior, bad attitude and disrespect of others.

Your immediate supervisor, Melissa Stankard, has held numerous coaching and counseling sessions with you regarding your errors, attitude and behavior. You have been unreceptive to directions and have generally refused to discuss issues with her. Several times you have walked out of the room before the conversation was over.

Unreasonable Conduct: Unacceptable attitude and behavior

On June 9, 2017 after the staff meeting, you met with your immediate supervisor and department director to review errors in your work. You became very defiant and you displayed unreasonable conduct by becoming aggressively angry and twice attempted to walk out of the meeting. Your attitude and behavior was unacceptable. You told your department director in an aggressive manner that you were looking for another job and stated that "your season here is done".

In addition to the behavior that is documented in this letter, there is counseling and meeting memo's from both your supervisors that indicate this type of behavior has to a greater of lesser degree been going on for some time. In light of all that is documented here and elsewhere, your comments about work environment and statements regarding looking for work elsewhere I have to question if you want to work here any longer. You make it appears that you no longer want to work here. I strongly suggest you consider your options and make a choice. If you do decide to continue working for this company then you must agree to the following corrective action.

Corrective Action:

- You must be respectful to your supervisors and co-workers.
- You must have NO further incidents of unreasonable conduct or bad behavior.
- You must stop being unreasonably defiant and stop displaying overly aggressive and hostile behavior toward all supervisory staff, but especially your immediate supervisor.
- You must agree to follow all instructions given to you by your supervisors.

Lastly, you must acknowledge that you understand that if there is another incident in which you display insubordination, disrespect, or unreasonable conduct, your employment will be terminated.

Employee Counseling Record

Employee Name: Topeka Robinson

Date: July 24, 2025

Supervisor's Name: Nina Daniels

This written counseling is intended to deliver clear communication to you regarding expectations of your employment at the Early Learning Coalition (ELC).

Reason for Counseling:

- 1. Unsatisfactory behavior as an employee of the ELC.
- 2. Background:
  - a. A meeting of the Appeals Committee was conducted on June 26, 2025. The Appeals Committee consists of the three members of the Coalition's Board of Directors. During the meeting both the Coalition and the appellant presented their evidence to support or refute respectively that the appellant committed fraud. After hearing the presentation of both sides, the Committee decided there was insufficient evidence the appellant had committed fraud and as a result the appellant's children were eligible to resume receiving subsidized childcare.
  - b. You were the appellant's assigned Eligibility Specialist and as such initiated the referral for suspected fraud.
  - c. You took issue with the decision of the Committee. You are certainly entitled to your opinion on such matters, however, in this case you made it a point to tell everyone you could that you disagreed with the decision that the Board, and by association the Executive Director, were wrong. You accused the Committee and the Coalition in general of allowing clients to steal from the state by receiving services they were not entitled to. This was done in a very vocal and demeaning manner which was disrespectful and questioned the authority and judgement of the Board of Directors and the Executive Director in carrying out their duties.

Discussion:

- 1. Behavior such as this, your verbal outburst, your accusations, and your display of disrespect for the leadership of this company are unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Unfortunately, I am not surprised by this behavior because similar occurrences have happened before, only this time it will be documented.
- 2. You were not present at the meeting, so you did not know what all was said and presented. It appears you also did not wait to find out exactly what happened and why. Once you learned the results of the meeting you proceeded to let everyone you encountered know how you felt about it. This was not done in private, but in areas where anyone, including visitors, could have seen and overheard what you were saying.

3. Outburst such as this will not be tolerated. When at work, all staff are expected to behave appropriately.

Corrective Action/Deadline:

- 1. To help ensure this does not happen again and that you understand the gravity of your actions you must make a written apology to the Board of Directors and the Executive Director. This apology must include a description of what you did wrong, why it was wrong, and an assurance that it will never happen again. This document is due no later than July 31, 2025.
- 2. There can be no repeat of behavior such as this. Should there be another such event it may result in termination of your employment.

Failure to comply with these expectations may result in further disciplinary action up to and
